1. TEAM PARTICIPATION

- Both High School (HS) and Higher Secondary School (HSS) students can participate under the same category.
- The event is open for participation without any registration fees..
- Each team can have 2–5 student members.
- Students must register their team in advance.
- Each team should have a unique project title and concept.
- A student can be part of only one team.
- Hostel facilities will be provided

2. PROJECT GUIDELINES

- Working models, prototypes and innovative concepts are encouraged.
- Projects should focus on at least one aspect of sustainability.
- Projects must be developed and presented by the participating students. External assistance, if any, should be limited to guidance.

3. DISPLAY AND PRESENTATION GUIDELINES

- Each team is allowed a maximum of 2 charts/ 10 presentation slides.
- Teams must bring their own presentation materials and necessary accessories.

4. FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

- Schools may register any number of teams. A participation amount of ₹2,000 will be provided to a maximum of two teams per school that participate without winning any prize.

5. SAFETY AND DISCIPLINE

- Projects involving fire, hazardous chemicals, explosives, high voltage or other dangerous materials are strictly prohibited.
- All electrical and electronic demonstrations must be properly insulated and operated safely.
- Projects using batteries, motors, moving parts or mechanical systems must have appropriate safety arrangements.
- Students must maintain discipline and follow the instructions of the event coordinators.
- Participants are responsible for the safety of their models and display materials.

6. JUDGING CRITERIA

Criteria	Weightage
Innovation and Creativity	25%
Technical Knowledge and Understanding	20%
Practical Application and Feasibility	15%
Working Model / Demonstration	10%
Presentation and Communication	10%
Polling	20%
TOTAL	100%

7. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

- The decision of the judging panel and organizing committee shall be final.
- Participants must follow the reporting time and event schedule.
- Any damage to college property due to negligence will be the responsibility of the participating team.
- The organizing committee reserves the right to modify the event rules if necessary.